

ALC's 20th Annual Summit: Legal Update on Employment Law Issues Affecting the Language Services Industry

Paley Rothman's Employment Law Attorney Scott Mirsky will be a speaker for the ALC's 20th Annual Summit this year at Planet Hollywood in Las Vegas from September 13th - 15th.

Scott will present "Legal Update on Employment Law Issues Affecting the Language Services Industry" on September 15th at 11:00 A.M. PT. The topic covers the legal and practical landscape of how companies manage their workforce since the beginning of the pandemic, with a focus on employee mobility issues (non-compete agreements), remote workers, and worker classification issues. The program will also address how the recent Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade may impact the employment law landscape.
