

Ten Things You Should Know About Estate Planning

Jeffrey Kolender gave an estate planning presentation on June 24, 2018 at Christ Episcopal Church Kensington.

Invited by The Planned Giving and Endowment Committee, he spoke with attendees on a range of estate planning topics, including the importance of beneficiary designations, estate planning concerns in blended families, planning for disability, and recent changes to the estate tax laws.

Jeffrey is Chair of the firm's Estate Planning and Estate & Trust Administration practice groups.
