

What Do You Mean That's Unethical?

A Two-Part Program Exploring the Pitfalls of Speaking One's Mind and Other Potential Ethical Traps. Trish Weaver was a panel speaker.

Part II: 12:30 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

There are many instances in the jurisprudence regarding lawyers' ethical responsibilities where the Court of Appeals sanctioned attorneys for conduct that appeared to take place other than in the traditional arena of the practice of law – some situations seeming intuitive, and others perhaps counter-intuitive. This panel staked out the terrain with exemplars and peered into yet unexplored dark corners.
