DC EMPLOYERS MUST COMPLY WITH NEW PAID LEAVE TAX

Private employers in the District of Columbia are now required to pay a wage tax to cover paid family and medical leave for employees.

THE PAYROLL LEAP YEAR: WHAT IT IS AND WHAT TO DO ABOUT IT

Summary: Employers who pay their salaried employees every week or every two weeks will unavoidably encounter a year in which there is one pay day more than usual. These employers should plan ahead to identify and address these “payroll leap years” in advance.
