

David Shapiro and Bibi Berry Named Principals of Paley Rothman

David Shapiro and Bibi Berry have been named principals of the firm.

David, a member of the Corporate, Health Law and Employment Law practice groups, represents individuals and business entities in a broad range of general business, commercial and complex transactional matters. Bibi (former Principal), devoted most of her practice to matters relating to the firm's Family Law practice group, is certified as a Best Interest Attorney throughout the state of Maryland, allowing her to represent minor children in contested custody and visitation cases.