

Paley Rothman Welcomes Family Law Associate Hunter Grolman

Paley Rothman is pleased to announce that Hunter Grolman has joined its Family Law practice group as an Associate.

Prior to joining Paley Rothman, Hunter assisted low-income DC residents with legal issues during a series of internships with nonprofit organizations like Bread for the City, Break the Cycle, and the Network for Victim Recovery of DC. She spent the majority of her time working on domestic violence cases covering issues from protective orders and custody to housing. That experience gave her a close perspective on the effects abuse can have on the entire family, and she remains particularly passionate about the law's ability to protect survivors of abuse.
