

Paley Rothman's Family Law Co-Chair Tracey J. Coates Launches The Divorce Chronicles Podcast

BETHESDA, MD, SEPTEMBER 18, 2018 — Paley Rothman is excited to announce the launch of The Divorce Chronicles, a podcast hosted by Family Law Practice Co-Chair Tracey J. Coates.

Coates, who conceived the show, says The Divorce Chronicles, is a “forum for smart, insightful and honest conversation for anyone who is considering or in the midst of a divorce.”

A family lawyer in the Washington, D.C.-area for nearly 15 years, Coates has represented clients in all aspects of family law including divorce, spousal and child support, marital property valuation, prenuptial, postnuptial and marital settlement agreements, and adoption.

“The Divorce Chronicles’ podcasts cut through the legal jargon and dive into the inner-workings of the divorce process so people can transition from married to single life.” said Coates.

For her shows, Coates interviews Washington-area and national mediators, magistrates, financial advisors, divorce coaches, and other professionals involved in the divorce process. For more information, go to The Divorce Chronicles. To subscribe in iTunes, click the link:

<https://itunes.apple.com/us/podcast/the-divorce-chronicles/id1412298157>

About Paley Rothman

Founded in 1972 in Montgomery County, Md., Paley Rothman has earned a reputation as one of the leading law firms in the Washington, DC-metro area. Paley Rothman is known for its high quality legal services and sophisticated practices. The firm has developed a loyal base of clients who appreciate its competitive pricing, efficiency, collegiality and knowledge.

###