Ron Dweck & Kevin D’Anna Represent StarCompliance in Connection with Major Investment from Luminate

Corporate attorneys Ron Dweck and Kevin D’Anna provided legal counsel to the Firm’s long-time client, StarCompliance, LLC, in connection with a strategic investment from Luminate Capital Partners, a San Francisco based private equity firm.

StarCompliance is the pre-eminent provider of enterprise compliance and regulatory software solutions for the financial services industry, including leading global banks, investment and private equity firms. The investment from Luminate Capital will help StarCompliance strengthen their market position and increase product innovation.

StarCompliance CEO Marc Epstein worked closely with Ron and Kevin as they partnered with DLA Piper to close the transaction.

Ron Dweck is chair of the Firm’s Corporate practice group, and a member of the Science & Technology, Tax and Nonprofits groups. Ron has represented StarCompliance for many years as general outside counsel from its beginning stages through the sale, and will continue to represent the business following the closing.

Kevin D’Anna is a member of the Firm’s Corporate, Science & Technology, Nonprofits and Real Estate practice groups.

Ron Dweck (Corporate Chair) and Kevin D'Anna

© 2024 – All Rights Reserved