

Trish Weaver Elected to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Council of the MSBA

Trish Weaver, who chairs Paley Rothman's Appellate Practice group, was elected to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Council of the Maryland State Bar Association (MSBA).

She will serve a three-year term, during which she will work toward developing and implementing strategies and protocols to increase the use of processes other than litigation (such as mediation and collaborative law practice) to resolve business and other disputes.