LEADERS YOU NEED TO KNOW

PAULA A. CALIMAFDE CO-MANAGING PARTNER

Paula Calimafde is the chair of the firm's Retirement Plans and Employee Benefits practice groups and is a nationally recognized leader in both fields, having worked with numerous members of Congress on a variety of policy issues. She is the current chairman of the Small Business Council of America (SBCA), advocating for privately-owned businesses in the areas of federal tax, estate tax, retirement, health care and employee benefits.

Ms. Calimafde has nearly 30 years of experience advising companies and tax-exempt organizations on qualified and non-qualified deferred compensation and cafeteria plans. Her practice includes sophisticated estate planning for individuals as well as owners of family-owned businesses.

As part of her formidable government and public service record, Ms. Calimafde has served as a Presidential Delegate to the White House Conference on Small Business and participated in the National Summit on Retirement Income Savings. She has testified before several Congressional committees, given lectures to a myriad of national organizations and is a regular contributor to the annual NYU Review of Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation.

Paley Rothman, founded in 1972, is a full-service law firm of more than 40 attorneys that provides legal counsel to corporate and individual clients. It maintains a business orientation and handles tax, real estate, estate planning, litigation and a variety of other matters for businesses and professionals throughout the Washington metropolitan area.
