On Choosing BETHESDA:

"I grew up in Chevy Chase and spent lots of time in Bethesda as a young man. I knew this area back in the '40s and '50s, in fact, when it was a sleepy little town and Wisconsin Avenue was one way. We went to Gifford's, the bowling alley and businesses like Leon's Men's Clothing and People's Drug Store. We have wonderful pictures in our offices of the old days.

We started Paley Rothman in 1972. We knew we wanted to be in Montgomery County. In 1986 we moved to Bethesda, betting that it would become the commercial epicenter of the area. What a great decision that turned out to be. We were proven right and are as happy as can be today.

It's delightful being able to take clients out to restaurants and walk these streets. I like the new retail, too, and I truly believe it's getting better all the time. We have clients coming in from Virginia, Washington, D.C. and Howard County, and they love it too."

Paley Rothman, founded in 1972, provides legal counsel to corporate and individual clients in a wide range of practice areas. It maintains a business orientation and handles tax, real estate, employment law, estate planning, litigation and a variety of other matters for businesses and professionals in Montgomery County and throughout the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area.
