

Tip Credit Ending in DC?

By Scott Mirsky

The elimination of the tip credit is back on the ballot for DC residents in November. Initiative 82, if passed, would eliminate the tip credit over a five-year period and require DC employers to pay all employees the non-tipped minimum wage by July 1, 2027, as follows:

	Date	Cash minimum wage paid to tipped workers
Initiative 82 also reiterates that all tips would remain	By January 1, 2023 the property of the wor paid the full minimum wage. As expected, many restip credit would further hurt their bottom line as they a	taurants are concerne are still recovering from	d that the abolishment of the the pandemic/per hour
However, on a positive note for restaurants under Ini reaches the non-tipped minimum wage rate (i.e. , on tipped workers to share their tips with non-tipped wor allow a restaurant to evenly distribute tips between the workers, but restaurants are reminded not to allow a	July 1, 2027) employer ker s (slid) as 206 ks a le front-of-the-house a	s may be allowed to require nd dishwashers per ที่เหม่าwould nd the back-of-the-house
workers, but restaurants are reminded not to allow of pool.	By July 1, 2025	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Paley Rothman's Employment Law Group will contin initiative was passed by the DC voters in 2018 but was unclear if the DC Council would step in again if Initiat been significantly altered due to the pandemic and the	as later repealed by the ive 8½ ib/bass2 62as th	e DC Council. However, it is e restaulant langue page in as © 2024 – All Rights Reserved 4800 Hampden Lane, 6th Floor, Bethesda, MD 20	0814 -B330Ju 301-650797 3 3	^{301-Nਿੰਰਔਰਿрed minimum wage w}	vw.paleyrothman.com