

The Paley Rothman Blog

Paley Rothman shares this library of resources with clients and friends of the firm to help them stay ahead of legal and business developments and trends. Here, you will find helpful tips and tools written by our employees.

CHALLENGES OF CORONAVIRUS FOR DIVORCED AND BLENDED FAMILIES

Sheltering in place during the pandemic is difficult when you're living, working and schooling in the same location with your family. Add in the complexities of divorce, blended families and economic uncertainty, and the pressure goes up further. Some experts predict there will be a rise in divorce when the pandemic ends.

CO-PARENTING DURING COVID: A PRACTICAL GUIDE

We've thought about the most commonly asked questions we're hearing about co-parenting during the COVID-19 crisis and wanted to share some advice.

Q&A - DIVORCE AND THE HOLIDAYS: KEEPING SPIRITS BRIGHT

The holidays are a wonderful time of year to share with your family and friends. Yet, with travel, shopping and many preparations, this is a stressful time. For divorced families, that stress is even greater because there are more arrangements that have to be made regarding children, when and where children will be, whose house, when, for how long. There may also be sadness about a time when the family was whole and celebrations were happier.

VIRGINIA PROTECTIVE ORDERS IN CASES OF FAMILY ABUSE

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month, and Lynette Kleiza has written a blog outlining some frequently asked questions regarding Virginia Protective Orders.

Q&A BACK TO SCHOOL TIPS FOR DIVORCED PARENTS

It's Back to School for children and families, and there are new classes, school routines and activities to manage. Tracey Coates and Carlos Lastra talk about how to make Back to School easier for kids whose parents are divorced.