

14 Paley Rothman Attorneys Selected by Peers to Bethesda Magazine's List of Top Attorneys

Fourteen attorneys were featured across twelve practice areas in the Top Attorneys feature in the November/December issue of Bethesda Magazine.

"We asked more than 1,800 attorneys who practice regularly in Montgomery County who they would hire if they needed a lawyer."

The Paley Rothman attorneys selected to this year's list include:

- Michelle Chapin - Trusts and Estates
- Tracey Coates - Family/Divorce
- Glenn Cooper - Family/Divorce
- Hope Eastman - Employment - Employer
- Wayne Eig - Tax
- Jim Hammerschmidt - Employment - Employee, Employment - Employer
- Daniel Hodin - Real Estate - Commercial, Real Estate - Residential
- Art House - Alternative Dispute Resolution, Intellectual Property
- Jeffrey Kolender - Trusts and Estates
- Carlos Lastra - Family/Divorce
- Robert Maclay - Business/Corporate
- Paul Marcotte - Tax
- David Shapiro - Business/Corporate, Health Care
- Trish Weaver - Appellate

Thank you to all who selected our attorneys for this designation! You can find our profile on page 135 in Bethesda Magazine.

Standing (L-R): Jim Hammerschmidt, Irish Weaver, Carlos Lastra, David Shapiro, Tracy Coates, Art House, Bob Maclay, Michelle Chapin, Glenn Cooper
 Sitting (L-R): Jeffrey Kolender, Hope Eastman, Daniel Hodin
 Not pictured: Wayne Eig, Paul Marotte

Paley Rothman

Founded in 1972 in Bethesda, Paley Rothman is one of the leading law firms representing businesses and individual clients across multiple practice areas.

What has remained consistent at the firm over the years?

The Paley Perspective—We see matters through the lens of your desired objectives and from there, we develop a strategy to meet your needs. Businesses and individuals, like you, rely on Paley Rothman to identify key issues, analyze and interpret complex information and develop approaches that protect your interests and ensure your long-term success. The "Paley Perspective" has led to Paley Rothman's reputation among the Top Lawyers in Maryland.

A mid-sized firm in Bethesda, Paley Rothman has developed a loyal base of clients who appreciate our efficiency, collegiality and knowledge in such areas as family law, estate planning, corporate, tax, real estate, litigation, insurance, healthcare and employment law. We operate cost-effectively with lean staffing and a multicultural workforce, to provide you with the highest level of personal service.

How has Paley Rothman evolved as Montgomery County has grown?

Paley Rothman is proud to be part of Montgomery County, and as the county has grown more diverse and sophisticated, so has the firm. We have added lawyers who are adept in numerous new growth practices, and we represent clients in larger, more sophisticated matters. We're committed to many business and civic groups and provide pro bono representation through several social justice organizations.

We are a multi-lingual, multi-racial, inviting workplace that values diversity and inclusion. As Montgomery County has become one of the best places to live, Paley Rothman has evolved into one of the best places to work.

COURTESY PHOTO

HONORS & ACCOLADES

Best Lawyers, "Best Law Firms" national & metropolitan rankings, U.S. News; Best Lawyers in America; Super Lawyers and Rising Stars, Maryland, D.C. and Virginia

4800 Hampden Lane, 6th Floor
 Bethesda, MD 20814
 301-656-7603
 info@paleyrothman.com
 www.paleyrothman.com

© 2019 Bethesda Magazine. All rights reserved.