

Paley Rothman Honored at Bar Association of Montgomery County's Annual Law Day

Paley Rothman and its attorneys went home big winners from the Bar Association of Montgomery County's 2014 Law Day event. Howard Soypher (former Principal) accepted the Andrew L. Sonner Diversity Award, presented to Paley Rothman, for upholding the highest standards of the legal profession by encouraging racial and cultural diversity in the hiring, retention and promotion of attorneys.

Bibi Berry (former Principal) received the President's Citation for outstanding service. Tracey Coates received an award for Successful Completion of the 2013-2014 Leadership Development Academy, created to develop young lawyers into bar leaders and to encourage them to be more involved not only in the legal community, but in the Montgomery County community, by providing services and programs that will enrich the community.

