Autumn Outlook - Planning Ahead Amidst the COVID-19 Pandemic

Paley Rothman's employment law team hosted a webinar addressing the ongoing challenges and questions that many employers will face in the coming months as they continue to navigate the new laws and issues that have accompanied the COVID-19 pandemic.

Whether you have employees working remotely or in person, in this one-hour webinar, our team will discuss the key concerns including workplace safety mandates and recommendations, leave issues, liability concerns and waivers, managing remote employees, future furloughs and layoffs, recommended policy updates and more.

A copy of the slides is available to download:

Autumn Outlook - Planning Ahead Amidst the COVID-19 Pandemic – click to download

A recording of the full webinar can be seen below:

© 2024 – All Rights Reserved